Mr. Lester Snow,

Stop! I have read of the Calfed plan to build a huge peripheral canal, enlarge existing dams, build new dams, etc. etc. We cannot make things right by doing more of the same. Sooner or later we need to say enough! We simply cannot try to alter nature in these proportions and expect the end result — if ever there would be an "end" to it all — to be in sync with nature in any way, shape or form. Man must appreciate what natural resources can provide and revolve around these provisions, not constantly exploit and ravage in greedy misuse.

If you or your advisors have not read the excellent series "The Gathering Storm" done in 11/97 - 12/97 by the Sacramento Bee staff writers, get it, read it, understand it. The report was an eye opener and an award winner. Please - consider future generations. Stop the water war before its too late.

Sincerely, Barbara Ogden
