1114

Using today's technologies, water usage could be reduced 10-30% with no loss of economic output or quality of life. CALFED's documents must reflect or model the full potential for water conservation and efficiency to meet California's water needs.

Margaret Schultz

SEP 2 2 1999