

Sacramento River and Tributaries Technical Team Workshop
March 4-6, 1997
Red Lion, Redding--(New Location)

Tuesday, March 4, 1997

3:00 Check-in
6:00 Dinner
7:00-9:00 Introductions and review workshop purpose and process
Presentations--speakers will discuss (1) historical and current state of the mainstem and tributaries (2) the decline of fish populations and habitat, and (3) the factors causing the decline.

Wednesday, March 5, 1997

7:30-8:30 Breakfast
8:30-9:00 Discuss workshop purpose, scope, focus, and process. Discuss materials mailed prior to workshop.
9:00-9:30 Discuss restoration goals and objectives -- refer to existing studies and management plans
9:30-10:15 Discuss how to form break-out groups; for example by species or geographic area
10:15-10:30 Break
10:30-12:00 Break-out groups--identify fish and habitat problems (refer to stressor matrix in packet)
12:00-1:00 Lunch
1:00-5:00 Break-out groups--identify and prioritize problems and actions (break during afternoon)
5:00-6:30 Social time in lounge
6:30 Dinner

Thursday, March 6, 1997

7:30-8:30 Breakfast
8:30-10:15 Break-out groups--prioritize actions
Identify projects and programs
10:15-10:30 Break
10:30-12:00 Present break-out group information to large group
Prioritize actions
12:00-1:00 Lunch/ Check-out of rooms
1:00-3:00 Prioritize actions (continued)
Reach consensus on package of projects and programs
3:00-3:15 Break
3:15-4:00 Summary, what to do different next time, next step after workshop