Subject: Issue Resolution Process

Summary

A critical component of the Phase II Final Report is the development of a process that can be utilized to resolve outstanding issues in the time period between the release of the draft EIS/EIR and the final document.

At the upcoming meeting, CALFED staff will present a refined list of those issues of concern that they believe may require additional analysis, modeling or development in addition to other focussed work efforts (workshops, peer review, etc.) to reach resolution. CALFED staff will also provide a more detailed description of a proposed process to address these issues.
