SACRAMENTO--The CALFED Bay-Delta Program will announce the selection of 62 ecosystem restoration projects, for a total of $25 million in funding. State and federal CALFED agency officials will recognize the approved projects.

These early restoration projects can make important improvements to the Bay-Delta system as CALFED is developing a long-term solution. Funding for the projects comes from the federal Bay-Delta Act, state Proposition 204 and federal watershed funding. To date, over $130 million in state, federal and stakeholder funds and cost-sharing agreements have been awarded.

WHAT: Announcement of $25 million in ecosystem restoration projects
