CALFED Bay-Delta Program

Subject: Approach to Impact Analysis and CALFED Programmatic EIR/EIS Schedule

You will find three documents enclosed. The first document is entitled, "CALFED Bay-Delta Program Approach to Impact Analysis." This draft report identifies CALFED's approach to assessing the program level impacts of the proposed alternatives on the resource categories (these are provided in the second enclosure). Also enclosed is a draft detailed schedule that identifies work products and review periods for PCT members and CALFED Program staff.

Please review the draft "Approach to Impact Analysis" and provide any comments to Wendy Halverson Martin at the above address, or call her at (916) 657-2666. The schedule will provide you an understanding of the timing of the distribution of Programmatic EIR/EIS-related documents for your review and the fast turnaround we are expecting for receipt of your comments. Thank you, in advance, for the quick review of the draft documents. If you have any questions or comments about the schedule, please contact Wendy. You may also contact Ray McDowell at the above CALFED address or by calling (916) 653-9499.
